ALLEGED VIOLATIONS

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation No.	Nature of Noncompliance
----------------------	--------------------------------

1. The defendant shall not purchase, possess, use, distribute, or administer any controlled substance, except as prescribed by a physician.

On September 17, 2013 Mr. Johnson tested positive for cocaine. He admitted continued use from August 28, 2013 to September 15, 2013.

Mr. Johnson has tested negative for illegal drugs from September 25, 2013 to date.

2. The defendant shall pay restitution to the victims identified in the Criminal Monetary Penalties section of this Judgment in an amount totaling $3,267.79. Should there be an unpaid balance when supervision commences, the Defendant shall pay the remaining restitution in monthly installments in an amount recommended by the Probation Office and approved by the Court, but the minimum monthly rate shall not be less than 10 percent of Defendant's gross monthly income.

Mr. Johnson has not made a restitution payment since September 2013. He has made a total of eight payments during his twenty months of supervision. To date his restitution balance is $3,052.79. U.S. Probation Officer Kara Sanders has instructed him on multiple occasions to comply with the Court's condition to pay restitution.

Mr. Johnson has been continuously employed since December 2011.

Compliance with Supervision Conditions and Prior Interventions:

Mr. Johnson began his term of supervised release on December 7, 2011. His supervision is scheduled to expire on December 6, 2014.

In January 2012, the Court was notified of Mr. Johnson's excessive alcohol use and use of cocaine, opiates, benzodiazepine, and oxycodone. The Court took no action as recommended by the probation officer and allowed him to seek substance abuse treatment. Mr. Johnson voluntarily enrolled in the substance abuse program with Room at the Inn, in Nashville, Tennessee. He resided at this program from January 2012 to February 2013. In February 2013, he completed the program and secured his own apartment.

In February 2012, Mr. Johnson began outpatient treatment with the Middle Tennessee Treatment Center, in Nashville, Tennessee, where he began a methadone maintenance treatment program. He sought this treatment on his own and until August 2013, he complied with all treatment recommendations.

In September 2013, the Court was notified of two positive drug tests for cocaine. The Court took no action as recommended by the probation officer and allowed him to continue to take advantage of substance abuse treatment. Mr. Johnson is currently attending weekly substance abuse treatment and is in compliance with all treatment recommendations.

Mr. Johnson was employed with the Veterans Administration Hospital from November 2011 to May 2013. He changed employment in May 2013, to Howard Moore Painting Inc. for a better paying position. Mr. Johnson was recently promoted to crew leader in August 2013.

U.S. Probation Officer Recommendation:

It is respectfully recommended that no action be taken at this time and Mr. Johnson be allowed to continue to take advantage of substance abuse treatment and continue on supervision. However, these violations may be considered in the future, if necessary. Any future violations or positive drug tests will be promptly reported to the Court.

The U.S. Attorney's Office has been notified of the probation officer's recommendation.
